Living Without Frustration Thoughts From Joyce Meyer

the effectiveness of a church’s mission largely depends on its ability to mobilize its people in doing God’s work in the world. The largest force the church has to accomplish its mission is the people of God engaged in the life of the world every day in the course of their daily work. I have the mind of Christ Jesus loves me. I am covered with the love of Jesus Christ. This is the confession the Holy Spirit placed in my heart a few days ago to say aloud and combat the torment and lies of the enemy upon my mind, confused about my education. Should I enroll in seminary school as everyone suggests or pursue another graduate degree to help me in managing a non-profit operating a small business? Actually, God wants me to go back to school but if you want me to go back to school then I will. God does not want me to go back to school and if so where. We all have weak areas where we are easily tempted to go astray if we are not careful and we give into temptation on a habitual basis. A stronghold can form in our hearts and our minds. Everyday we wake to a spiritual battle if we are unaware of the tactics of our enemy and we let our guard down. I agree with some of your thoughts, Dimitri. I follow the rules and I’m still stuck in the valley. Humble, serve, give, put people first. Selfless acts taken abuse from people in my inner circle.

Siddhartha Gautama Buddha was a Hindu born in Northern India. The son of a prince, he grew up in wealth and luxury and married happily. Meditating about the evils of the world led him to abandon his wife, his children, and his wealth, and to wander about India as a beggar in search of truth.
